

READ THE BIBLE IN A YEAR

Rev. Dr. Thomas Scott, Senior Pastor

January 2010

Dear Friend,

We are excited that God has allowed us to see the beginning of 2010. Millions of people did not have that blessed opportunity; however, we did. To God Be the Glory! Great Things He has done!

As we enter 2010, our church family has embarked upon the goal of reading the entire Bible in a year. What an awesome chance to hear God speak to us directly through His Word. We invite you to join us in this spiritual endeavor. We have provided some tips to aid you with your daily reading.

First, Schedule your Bible study time. Set aside a specific amount of time to read and study your Bible each day. As you read through the study guide, some days may require more time and than others. If you don't put study into your daily schedule, you will never make time for it. You should study your Bible when you are at your best physically, emotionally, intellectually and when you are can be undistracted and unhurried.

Second, Keep a notebook or journal. As you begin to read and study the Bible, God will reveal things to you through His Word. Keeping a notebook or journal will allow you to reflect back on the things you have learned, experienced and observed.

Third, Get the right tools. As you read, there may be words, phrases, etc. that you do not fully understand. There are excellent reference books and website available to you.

There are different translations of the Bible, such as New International Version, The Amplified Bible or The New American Standard Bible.

A concordance is a Bible index of words and references where they word may be found.

A Bible dictionary or encyclopedia explains words, topics, customs and traditions in the Bible as well as gives historical, geographic and cultural information.

A commentary is a scholarly collection of explanatory notes and interpretations on the text of a particular Bible book or section. Commentaries explain and interpret the meaning of the biblical message by analyzing the words used, background, introduction, grammar and syntax, and relation of that particular book to the rest of the Bible.

Useful websites include bible.com, blueletterbible.com and crosswalk.com.

Finally, Spend a short time in prayer before each study. Ask the Lord to cleanse your life from all sin and to fill you with the Holy Spirit, so you will be in fellowship with Him during this study. Ask the Lord to guide you in your study. The best way to understand the Bible is to talk with its Author. Memorize Psalm 119:18 and use it before each study: “Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.”

In this series, you will find that each day contains a passage from the Old Testament, the New Testament, Psalms, and Proverbs. There is also a space for you to record your thoughts, observations or revelations. We encourage you to print the monthly scriptures and store them in a three-ring binder. This will allow you to stay on track each month.

Finally, remember that when you are reading the Bible, you are not just reading some stories, you are reading God's Word . . . God is speaking to you!

God bless you as you read and study your Bible.

The Thirty-Fourth Street Church Family.
